

Congregation Ahavas Achim is celebrating 125 years of Jewish community in Newburyport!

Please Join Us for Two Community Events:

Open House at Congregation Ahavas Achim Sunday, May 15, 2022, 4–6pm

Guided architectural tour of the historic building erected in 1865. Slideshow of photos and a timeline of Newburyport's Jewish community dating back to 1896.

Q&A with Alex Matthews, Congregational Leader—
Ask anything you've ever wondered about Judaism!

Community memorabilia will be on display and refreshments will be served.

This event will be in-person only.

Please register for the 6/12 event here

For more information email
CAA125@caa-newburyport.org or call 978-255-3144 and leave a message.

Both events will be held at;
Congregation Ahavas Achim
53½ Washington Street, Newburyport, MA 01950

Reflections on 125 Years of Rich Jewish History in Newburyport Sunday, June 12, 2022, 4pm

Moderated by Anna Smulowitz, renowned playwright of Terezin, Children of the Holocaust, who has been chronicling Jewish life in Newburyport for decades; and Joel Grossman, longtime CAA member and past President of the Board.

Following the event, join us for refreshments, a display of community memorabilia and a photographic slide show.

This event will be in-person and live streamed, registration is requested.

Congregation
Ahavas Achim
EST. 1896 Newburyport